SELEX Galileo launches dedicated Saudi Arabian subsidiary

On the 15th March, SELEX Galileo, a Finmeccanica Company, launched a new limited liability company dedicated to its business activities in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. Wholly owned by SELEX Galileo, the launch of “SELEX Galileo Saudi Arabia Company Limited” demonstrates the firm’s commitment and confidence in a long term relationship with Saudi Arabia.

The new company will be based in a permanent in-country office and will participate in key defence events, as well as working with Saudi Arabian companies and Academia to strengthen ties between the Kingdom and SELEX Galileo.

SELEX Galileo has been working with Saudi Arabia for over 30 years to deliver innovative technology into the Kingdom. A leading supplier in-country, SELEX Galileo is willing to support the development of the Saudi Arabian defence industry.

Notes to Editors

SELEX Galileo has taken part in several large programmes in Saudi Arabia such as Al Yamamah and Salam, where SELEX Galileo has worked with the country to supply systems and in-country support for the Tornado and Typhoon aircraft. Through this and numerous support and training projects, the Company’s representatives in Saudi Arabia have grown in understanding of the Saudi culture. The relationships that have been built have helped the Company to meet the precise needs of the Kingdom.
